

Deanery Synod Open meeting

There is a Deanery Synod meeting in Besthorpe church on Thursday, 17 July starting at 7.30pm. Whilst this is normally for Deanery Synod representatives only, this will be an open meeting which means everyone is invited to attend. The guest speaker will be Revd Richard Lamey, Director of Mission and Ministry for the Diocese.

Earlier in the year all parishes were invited to contribute to the creation of the Diocesan Strategy plan headed by Richard. This meeting is intended to provide an update on progress so far and to facilitate the Deanery's response. So if you are interested and have something to say please come along.

The General Synod is also holding an important meeting on Saturday 12 July regarding finances within the Church of England. This may have implications for all our churches.
