An Invitation from the Giving Team

Psalm 75 begins with a great declaration, 'We Thank you, O God! We Give Thanks because you are near. People everywhere tell of your wonderful deeds.' Psalm 75:1 (NLT)

Over the last few years, it has been very reassuring to know that our God is indeed near to us, helping us to navigate a pandemic, a cost-of-living crisis, a war on our doorstep and a myriad of other challenges.

We would love for you to be one of the 'people everywhere' from across our diocese giving thanks at our Service of Thanksgiving at Norwich Cathedral on the 30th April 2023 at 3:30pm.

It is your opportunity to be part of the chorus of celebrating God's wonderful deeds to us and through us over the last few years.

If you would like to come and celebrate with us while we hear from Bishop Graham, please RSVP to naomi.rizk@dioceseofnorwich.org by the 20th of April please. Refreshments will be available, and all from your parish are welcome to attend, so please feel free to promote it in your pew sheets.

Bishop Graham and our team would love to welcome you as we give thanks together.

Yours sincerely,

Robert, Colin & Naomi
Generous Giving Team
